

Project Case Study: Masonry Block Plant

We supplied an intake system for a new masonry plant. Items included in the scope of supply were hoppers, belt conveyors – including a shuttle conveyor, FRP walkways, platforms, modular guarding, and the installation and commissioning of the supplied equipment. Our team worked alongside the client's project team and other contractors throughout the design and install phases of the project, which resulted in a successful outcome.

